

Hawaii's popular vegan cafe and restaurant, Peace Cafe Hawaii
Grand opening on November 1st (Fri) at Shibuya Scramble Square
Featuring popular items including the main location's specialty, Vegan Loco Moco!

Peace Cafe is the number one cafe in Hawaii chosen by Japanese people, and has continually received high acclaim such as in local gourmet magazines. The first Japanese location will open as “Peace Cafe Hawaii (Deli)” on November 1st (Fri) in the Tokyu Food Show EDGE on the 2nd floor underground at Shibuya Scramble Square Shops & Restaurants Area.

Peace Cafe was founded in 2010 as the first vegan cafe in Hawaii. In addition to not using chemical fertilizers, pesticides and additives based on the motto of food safety, the cafe provides healthy food using carefully selected Hawaiian grown fresh organic vegetables to contribute to the health of the people in Hawaii. This cafe is very popular locally in Hawaii and has won numerous awards such as local gourmet magazines. It also took first place in the cafe category of 111-HAWAII AWARD which is given by Japanese people.

Peace Cafe is coming to Japan to provide vegan dishes which utilize the techniques of a Japanese cuisine chef and Hawaii based on the ideas of great “taste, fun and health”. Enjoy creative healthy dishes that can only be found here!

Menu Items for Peace café Hawaii in Tokyo

Customized Deli Plate

Starting from ¥1,059 (¥980 without tax)

Main dish, side dish, salad and black rice or quinoa

*The Vegan Loco Moco is an additional ¥130.

Vegan Loco Moco

This is Hawaii's classic Loco Moco prepared vegan style. The vegan patties are packed with flavor including plenty of the superfood quinoa as well as vegetables, spices and seasonings. The vegan fried egg is made of tofu and has the look and taste of a real fried egg. About 30 different ingredients are combined to bring out the genuine flavor of the vegetables for a refreshing and rich tasting stewed Demi glacé sauce. This amazing dish brings together a variety of each taste such as crisp, smooth, rich and spicy.

Vegan Mochiko Chicken

This is Hawaii's classic Mochiko Chicken prepared vegan style. The outside is crispy due to the glutinous rice flour and the insides are juicy. The specially blended spices and marinade create a lingering after.

Crispy Tempeh Cutlets

The fermented tempeh is marinated in original sauce and deep fried with large bread crumbs for a crispy cutlet. No animal based foods are used, so there is a distinctively refreshing aftertaste. Enjoy with the refreshing and rich cutlet sauce slowly crafted with vegetables and spices.

Original Tofu Cutlets

This specialty popular in Hawaii is made by steaming tofu in original sauce then deep frying in sunflower oil. The insides are soft and juicy while the outsides are crispy like the tempeh. Enjoy specially crafted cutlet sauce.

Hawaiian Tofu Poke

This is Hawaii's classic poke made with tofu. The original secret poke sauce crafted especially for tofu was made through researching genuine Hawaiian poke sauce for a great taste you can repeatedly enjoy. Enjoy the refreshing salad-like sensation.
